RUSSIAN ATTACK IS DETERMINED

Use Four Hundred Guns in Shelling Czernowitz.

TEUTON POSITION CRITICAL

Operations in This Region May Herald Big General Russian Offensive From the Baltic to the Roumanian Border. Few Prisoners Are Being Taken.

London, Jan. 8.—Some idea of the determined nature of the Russian blow on the Bessarabian front is conveyed by Petrograd dispatches which state that the Russians for fifty hours concentrated 400 guns on the Austrian positions at Czernowitz, as a preparation for an infantry attack.

The Russian communications do not yet claim that Czernowitz has fallen, but dispatches from German sources admit the Teutonic position there is critical.

It is not yet clear whether the Russian operations in this theater herald a big general offensive movement of all the Russian armies from the Baltic to the Roumanian border or merely indicate an attack of unparalleled magnitude and fierceness designed to weaken the pressure of the central powers in the Balkans.

The fighting has been of the most bitter character, according to both the Austrian and Russian reports.

Few prisoners are being taken and the infantry engagements are largely in the nature of hand to hand encounters.

The situation along other fronts is comparatively quiet.

OFFICIALS ARE GRATIFIED

Believe Submarine Controversy Is Near Adjustment.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Official Washington considers that America and Germany at last are near a final agreement regarding the conduct of submarine warfare.

Officials made no attempt to conceal their gratification over the attitude Germany apparently has assumed.

Tension regarding the entire submarine question seemed to have lessened considerably.

Austria, in its reply to the last Ancona note, having assured the United States of its intention to operate submarines with due regard for international law and the principles of humanity, Turkey and Bulgaria, it is understood, next will take steps to give such guarantees.

CHURCHILL GIVEN COMMAND

Former First Lord of British Admiralty to Lead Battalion.

London, Jan. 8.—Major Winston Spencer Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty, who resigned his subsequent cabinet post of chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster and went to the front with his regiment, has been appointed to command a battalion of Royal Scots Fusiliers at the front in France.

According to Reuters' correspondent at British headquarters this will prove a stepping stone to the command of a brigade, which is said to be Major Churchill's immediate ambition.

PRESIDENT CONCEALS NAMES OF PLOTTERS

Washington, Jan. 8.—President Wilson does not deem it compatible with public interest to give congress at this time the names of persons involved in unneutral plots, criminal or otherwise, and like information concerning persons he characterized in his address to congress as naturalized citizens who have "poisoned the arteries of our nation's life."

In a letter to Chairman Webb of the house judiciary committee the president, so stating, called attention to investigations still in progress.

A resolution calling for such information had been referred to the committee.

FRENCH TO STOP NO MORE VESSELS.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The state department was advised by Ambassador Sharp at Paris that the French government had ordered the captain of the cruiser Descartes to act with great care and circumspection and not to stop any more American vessels.

The two Wisconsin men were joined in their attack on their Republican colleague by Representative Longworth of Ohio. Representative Stafford and Longworth denounced the statements of the Massachusetts member as unwarranted and particularly improper at this time.

Representative Cooper had just had time to declare that Mr. Gardner's speech might be expected in the British parliament when a point of order cut short the discussion.

GARDNER SUPPORTS POLICY

Approves Wilson's Course on War Munitions.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Representative Gardner (Rep.) made a long prepared speech in the house on the war conditions involving the United States. He approved the administration's stand that it would be unneutral to embargo war munitions and declared that a peace in Europe now would be inconclusive and would mean another war.

REDFIELD DECLARES NATION PROSPEROUS

Washington, Jan. 8.—Secretary Redfield, in a memorandum on business conditions transmitted to President Wilson, pictures the country as in the most prosperous state of its history. The warning is added, though, that war's inflation of commerce will last only until the war's end and that business foresight alone will prepare the United States for peace.

The slump that will follow the war abroad, the secretary's summary declares, must find Americans ready to take their share of the world's trade unhampered by provincial notions. False values created by unusual conditions, he fears, may lull the United States into a fancied commercial security.

SERIOUS RIOTING AT YOUNGSTOWN

REGULARS ARE ORDERED OUT

Two Companies of United States Soldiers at Columbus Are Reported to Have Been Sent to Ohio Town Because of the Looting and Burning of the Postoffice.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 8.—Two rioters in a saloon fight were killed, making the known dead in the steel mill strike at East Youngstown three. Nineteen persons were wounded.

Six city blocks have been burned with a loss estimated at $800,000.

The bridge from East Youngstown to Struthers was burned to prevent rioters from entering the town.

Two companies of United States regulars from Columbus are reported to have been ordered to East Youngstown because of the looting and burning of the postoffice.

State troops were called out to restore order as the result of rioting, following a battle between a crowd of strike sympathizers and armed guards at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company.

The trouble was the culmination of a strike of laborers which began at the plant of the Republic Iron and Steel company a week ago and spread to the plants of the tube company, the Youngstown Iron and Steel company and the Brier Hill Steel company, all "independent" concerns.

Men Asked 25 Cents an Hour.

The men demanded 25 cents an hour; the companies offer an increase from 19 1/2 cents to 22 cents an hour.

The trouble started when strike sympathizers and workers at the sheet and tube plant clashed. Stones were thrown and several shots were fired, but no one was injured.

Later a riot occurred just outside the tube company plant and two men were injured so badly that they were taken to a hospital.

The most serious trouble started when a crowd of 6,000 men gathered at the entrance of the works and stoned a squad of private police in charge of Chief J. M. Woltz of the sheet and tube company force.

According to a statement made by Woltz he fired a blank shot in the air to scare the crowd and then firing became general. Nineteen in the crowd were wounded following which the mob surged into the East Youngstown business district and set fire to several buildings. As the torch was applied first to a clothing store and then to a jewelry store looting began. A saloon was fired and looted, the liquor being distributed through the crowd.

The proposed line is seventy miles in length and runs through the Greenfield, Fairfield and Porter benches, all good farming soil. It touches Fairfield, Choteau and Farmington, already started, and four or five new towns will be built as a result of the operation of the line, including Agawan, the terminus.

Eastern Mediterranean, New Scene of Submarine Warfare

Austrian submarines which managed to escape from Pola, the Adriatic base of the Austrian fleet, have taken the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea for their operations. There they have sunk the Ancona and Persia and thus come into conflict with the American government. A dozen or more smaller vessels have also gone down. The chief war zone seems to be between the island of Crete and the coast of Africa.

"Go Fight," She Said, but He Took Poison

Miss Muriel Wheeler

Edward Ellfroth, a young Frenchman, who is a bank clerk in New York, saw Miss Muriel Wheeler at her home and begged her to wed him. He was a reservist in the French army, and he had told her a day or two before he had received a call to report again for duty in the French army. He did not want to go back; he wanted to get married.

"I will marry no man who fails to answer the call of his country," said she.

Dr. Jordan says: "The church can educate and elevate, lend its organization, its prestige, its influence to every movement for peace." The problem is one of the greatest, its divisions are without number. What do we mean by peace? Can war be prevented? How can peace be maintained? These are a few of the questions asked. A short series of sermons will be preached on the peace question. A hearty invitation to all intelligent citizens to come to the services. 11:45 a. m. Sunday school. HELPFUL HINTS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Heel Grip In Slipper Holds It Firmly on the Foot.

In order that a slipper or similar footwear which happens to be a shade too large may be made to adhere to the foot at the heel a little device has been recently patented. It consists of a piece of fabric of a coarse, rough nature, cut in the shape of a narrow neck with two enlarged wings, adapted to fit into the heel of the shoe and to embrace the heel of the foot when the latter is in place in the shoe. The new heel grip is supplied with an adhesive material on one surface, by which it is to be secured in the shoe, while the adhesion resulting from the rough material is sufficient to hold the slipper in place by acting on the fabric of the hosiery.

Mexican Sausage.

One pound each of pork and beef, chopped fine; one third as much bread-crumbs as meat, one small onion, chopped fine; one egg, one tablespoonful of chili powder and salt and pepper to taste. Soak the bread in water until thoroughly wet; then squeeze dry and add it to the other ingredients. Mix thoroughly, then form into balls. Have ready a sauce made of one quart of tomatoes, one chopped onion, a small teaspoonful of chili powder and salt and pepper. Simmer until the onion is done; then add the sausage balls to the sauce and cook gently for an hour, when they should be well done. Take out on a hot platter, thick in the sauce in the pan with a little flour mixed smooth with cold water and pour it over the meat, serving at once.

Creole Sausage.

If stuffed sausages are used prick each with the tines of a fork and place in a saucepan. If the uncased sausage is used mold into small flat cakes. Add one pint of tomatoes, season with salt and pepper and stew slowly for half an hour. Fifteen minutes before ready to serve add small dumplings. Serve in a deep platter, with the sausages piled in the center, surrounded by the dumplings, pouring the sauce from the pan over all.

Hermits.

This recipe for hermits calls for no eggs, and yet they are very good either with or without fruit. A cupful of sugar, a cupful of molasses, a cupful of lard or butter, half a cupful of sour milk, a teaspoonful of soda, a quarter teaspoonful of cloves, half a teaspoonful of cinnamon, a cupful of raisins or currants. Flour enough to make a fairly stiff dough. Roll out not too thin and bake a nice brown.

Jellied Cranberries.

Pick over and wash two cupfuls of berries and put them in a granite kettle with one half cupful of cold water. Bring to a boil and boil until berries stop popping. Add two cupfuls of granulated sugar, cook five minutes or until it will congeal when a little is cooled on a plate. If a thin sauce is desired add more water when cooking the berries to make as thin and juicy as liked.

Renovating Serge.

To renovate navy blue serge put two handfuls of bran into a basin; pour over it boiling water and let cool. Brush the garment free from dust, dip a piece of rough serge into the bran water and rub well over the article; roll up for an hour; then press the article on the wrong side with a hot iron.

Hash Croquettes.

Chop fine two cupfuls of lean pork and one small onion; add one teaspoonful of powdered sage, one cupful of breadcrumbs; season with salt and pepper and add two well beaten eggs. Mix thoroughly, make into small flat cakes, roll lightly in flour and fry in hot fat.

To Remove Glass Stoppers.

If a glass stopper is hard to remove dip a cloth in boiling water and while it is hot wrap it around the neck of the bottle. It will expand the glass and free the stopper. A lighted match can be used to heat the bottle in the same manner.

To Wash Silk.

Make a good lather of soap and warm water; wash the article in this; then rinse in clear, cold water and when dry on the wrong side of the material.

LAUNDRY HINTS.

Some Practical Suggestions That Save Time.

HOW TO REMOVE SPOTS.

An Expert Gives Advice to Young Housekeepers About the Best Way to Wash and Iron Household Linens. How to Make Javelle Water.

One of the best things to use for bleaching clothes that have become yellow with age or from remaining some time in a soiled condition is javelle water. This is made by dissolving one pound of washing soda in one quart of boiling water and one-half pound of chloride of lime in two quarts of cold water. Mix the two solutions and let the mixture stand for awhile. Pour off the liquid and bottle. In bleaching clothes use equal parts of javelle and plain water.

To remove spots made by machine or other oil on silk wet a piece of silk with oil of eucalyptus and rub the spot gently, working from the center of the spot outward.

To take out fruit stains put a bowl or cup under the cloth as it rests on the table and pour boiling hot water from a kettle on the spot until it disappears. When spot is removed put soft towel under the wet place and with another towel pat the spot till it is dry. The secret of removing all stains is to remove them as quickly as possible after they have been made.

Ink stains require different treatment in different cases. This is due to the different substances and chemicals used in making the ink. Some ink may be removed almost instantly by soaking the spot in milk, either fresh or sour. If this is not effective dissolve oxalic acid in hot water and pour it on the spot while hot. After this dip the garments in javelle water and rinse thoroughly. Another good method of removing ink stains is to make a paste of lemon juice, starch and table salt and put on the spot.

To remove grease stains from woolen or cotton materials wet a cloth with benzine and rub the spot from the center outward.

In ironing a shirt waist the sleeves should be done first, beginning with the cuffs. After that the neck and shoulders are finished off, then the back of the waist and last of all the front. The ruffle at the end of the waist that extends below the belt is plaited in neatly to prevent the waist from bulging under the skirt.

In ironing real heavy linen no starch should be used, as the linen itself has sufficient body. However, if a thin cheap grade of linen is used a thin starch will give a finish to it quite similar to that of the heavy linen. In ironing circular tablecloths, dollies, etc., the work should start from the center of the cloth and go outward; otherwise the cloth may be pulled out of shape. In ironing a straight cloth, towel, etc., the ironing should be done straight up and down with the grain of the goods, not crosswise, as such a procedure misshapes the fiber.

Not an Easy Road.

Accomplished.

Towne—His wife is very accomplished. She can cook or play a piano with the same facility. Browne—Why, that is an accomplishment. I never heard of any one cooking a piano.—Exchange.

The Going Guest.

"Welcome the coming, speed the going guest," is the correct quotation. "Parting guest" is wrong.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Brand Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled. This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly.

How to Converse With Authors.

I have learned, says a writer in the Atlantic Monthly, that in conversations with authors there should be long pauses. This is because every remark, after being received by the ear, must be submitted to a strict brain analysis and then given a soul bath before it is proper to venture a reply. I have found, also, that in answering too quickly I myself lose caste. I now make it a point never to respond to a question addressed to me by an author until I have counted twenty. If the author is very distinguished I make it fifty for good measure.

State Road Maintenance.

In the early stages of state road management little or no provision was made for the maintenance of roads constructed with the aid of state funds. This condition has developed into a serious problem, and many of the states are finding it difficult to obtain sufficient funds to resurface and properly maintain the large mileage of roads already constructed. It was thought at first that if the states added in the construction of roads the counties could be depended upon properly to maintain them. This has been found to be a case of misplaced confidence, and the only way in which the states could obtain proper maintenance was to place the work under the immediate direction of a state highway department. Automobile revenues are for the most part applied to the maintenance of roads, and many of the states are providing annual cash appropriations in sufficient amount properly to meet existing conditions.

For Rheumatism

As soon as an attack of rheumatism begins apply Sloan's Liniment. Don't waste time and suffer unnecessary agony. A few drops of Sloan's Liniment on the affected parts is all you need. The pain goes at once.

A grateful sufferer writes:—"I was suffering for three weeks with Chronic Rheumatism and stiff neck, although I tried many medicines, they failed. Fortunately I heard of Sloan's Liniment and after using it three or four days am up and well. I am employed at the biggest department store in S. F. where they employ from six to eight hundred hands, and they surely will hear all about Sloan's Liniment."—H. B. Smith, San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 1915. 25c at all druggists.—Adv't

TREES FOR LINCOLN HIGHWAY.

The Lincoln Highway Tree Planting association, in co-operation with authorities of the states through which this great transcontinental road passes, is working out a plan for ornamenting the roadside. Each state has been asked to designate the kind of tree and shrub to be planted along the road within its border.

In New Jersey it is proposed to plant fruit trees, Pennsylvania has started a move for forestry preservation with masses of American laurel for decoration, while Illinois and the prairie states of the middle west have expressed a preference for masses of the prairie rose indigenous to the section. Nebraska has decided to plant shade trees 200 feet apart, with ornamental trees and shrubbery between.

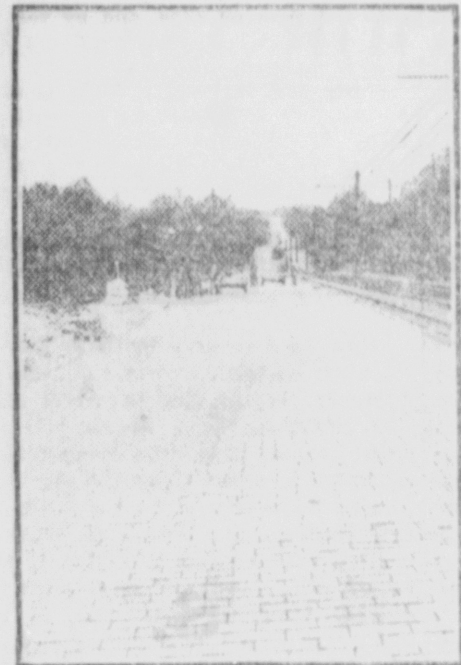

BRICK AND CONCRETE ROADS.

Department of Agriculture Gives Information Regarding Their Qualities.

Now that road authorities generally recognize the need of more durable country roads two bulletins issued by the department of agriculture, one on portland cement concrete and the other on vitrified brick pavement, are timely.

Each bulletin deals largely with the selection of materials and approved methods of constructing the kind of road it treats of, but also contains some observations of interest to the layman. Although brick roads are expensive to construct, they are becoming common and are giving general satisfaction, their principal advantages being durability under practically all traffic conditions, easy traction and the ease with which they are maintained.

There is a brick pavement in Terre Haute, Ind., that was laid in 1891-2 on a broken stone foundation and on which the cost of repairs has been only about $200, due to two breaks caused by expansion. This street carries a heavy traffic on part of its length. An other brick pavement, laid in Cleveland in 1890 on natural soil foundation in a thickly settled residential section, has never required any repairs due to wear.

Most of the concrete pavements have proved entirely satisfactory where traffic conditions were not unduly severe. The earliest pavement of this type, constructed in Bellefontaine, O., in 1883-4, was put down on one side of the public square, where it carries a heavy traffic and has cost not more than $200 for repairs in its twenty-two years of existence.

Concrete roads are durable under ordinary suburban and rural traffic, present a smooth, even surface, offering very little resistance to traffic, produce practically no dust, can be maintained at small cost and serve as an excellent base for some other wearing surface when resurfacing becomes desirable.

Since Wayne county, Mich., began building concrete roads in 1900 there has been a rapid increase in such pavements. In that year 364,000 square yards were built, in 1912 the yardage had increased to 6,470,000 and in 1914 to more than 19,000,000 yards.

The average cost of three pieces of concrete road built in Illinois by the state highway commission in 1912 was 88 cents a square yard, including preparation of the subgrade, but exclusive of cost of the use of machinery and tools. This would make the cost per mile of a fifteen foot surface $7,744.

Slightly Sarcastic.

"I do."
"How about a waif adopted by a millionaire? Pure efficiency, I suppose."—Kansas City Journal.

TO MAKE AND KEEP ROADS DRY

Good Drainage For Earth and Gravel Highways.

DRAG AFTER EACH RAIN.

Ruts Should Be Kept Filled and the Road Crowned With a Slope Toward the Side Ditches of From Three-fourths to One Inch to the Foot. Keep Side Ditches Clean.

Water plus clay or ordinary earth, when mixed, invariably forms mud. On ordinary earth roads the rains and melting snow furnish the water and the passing traffic the mixing, and the result is muddy roads. Take away the water or prevent it from mixing with the clay or earth on the road surface and little or no mud will result. In other words, keep your road dry if you wish it to remain hard, smooth and free from mud.

Except in very sandy or arid regions good drainage is the cardinal principle in the maintenance of earth and gravel roads. Get the water away from the road as quickly and completely as possible. Water naturally seeks the lowest level. You cannot keep the water from falling on the road, but you can assist its natural inclination to get away to a lower level. Keep the ruts filled and the road crowned with a slope toward the side ditches of from three-fourths to one inch to the foot, and the water will not collect on the road and soak in and be mixed to mud by passing traffic. Keep the side ditches clean and with frequent outlets to get the water away from the road entirely. Do not let the culverts clog up or material accumulate in the ditches and hold back pools of water to soak into and soften the foundation of your road. Water is an enemy that will run away if you give it a chance. Do not neglect to give it every chance.

Like most other enemies, water is not very destructive or dangerous until it collects in force. Therefore get the water away from your road at every available opportunity and before it has time to collect in sufficient volume to be dangerous to the road, and do not invite certain disaster by making your culverts too small to care for the largest possible storm. Furthermore, build the culverts so that the water will of necessity flow through them and not find a way around or beneath them. Properly designed substantial wing and end walls are the fortifications which protect the culvert from attack and destruction during severe storms. Do not build dry weather culverts; build them with a view to carrying for and protecting the road during the worst possible storms.

Make your road dry, build it hard and compact with a crown sufficient to shed water rapidly to the side ditches and with ample culverts and drains. To keep your road dry maintain the drainage in good condition. Drag your roads after each rain. Dragging fills in the ruts, smooths the surface and maintains the crown. On a road which has been properly dragged the rain finds no place to collect and soak into and soften the surface. Unless the rain is of long duration the surface is softened but very little. As soon as the rain has ceased and the road surface dried so that the clay is not sticky, but while it is still plastic, drag the road again. Any depression or ruts which have been formed during and after the rain are thus filled and the surface smoothed up and plastered over with a thin plaster of clay or earth which cracks and becomes very hard under passing traffic. Therefore in order to make and keep your road dry first provide for good drainage and then maintain the good drainage by systematic dragging after each rain. Diligent attention to these points will in general insure an earth road fairly passable at all times and very good most of the time. Southern Good Roads.

Remarkable System of Concrete Roads.

Wayne county, in Michigan, has the most remarkable system of concrete roads in the United States. Their construction began about seven years ago. The value of farm lands has in many instances more than doubled. Farmers who formerly required four horses to transport their produce to town now use one horse. Where trips to market formerly occupied an entire day, or perhaps two, the journey is now made in a few hours. These roads radiate like the spokes of a wheel with Detroit as their center. The great department stores of the city deliver merchandise over a wide area, going now into what were formerly remote rural districts. In brief, many of these farms, in so far as easy access to the city is concerned, have become suburban properties. The average maintenance on concrete roads sixteen feet wide has been less than $20 per mile per year, and in the case of a concrete road built in Bellefontaine, O., more than twenty years ago, a road subject to constant use since that time, the average repair charges have been less than $25 per mile per year.

Concrete Roads.

California has built 800 miles of concrete roads during the last three years, and New York state ranks second. They are also being laid extensively in Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa. The cost per mile for a fifteen foot road is about $7,750.

MUST BELIEVE IT

When Well-Known Brainerd People Tell it so Plainly

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Brainerd the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every sufferer of kidney backache, every man, woman or child with kidney trouble will do well to read the following:

D. M. Clark, hardware dealer, Iron Exchange Bldg., Brainerd, says: "I have often recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have known of their merit for some time. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn's Drug store and have always found that they act just as represented."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clark had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.

Many People Don't Know

A sluggish liver can cause a person an awful lot of misery. Spells of dizziness, headaches, constipation and biliousness are sure signs that your liver needs help. Take Dr. King's New Life Pills and see how they help tone up the whole system. Fine for the stomach too. Aids digestion. Purifies the blood and clears the complexion. Only 25c at your Druggist.—Advt.

BILL ON GROSS EARNINGS TAX

Bill of Senator George H. Gardner Aims to Divert it So that Community will Get Benefit

MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE QUOTED

Treasure will be Presented to the Next Legislature, Said Senator Gardner Today

Senator George H. Gardner, of this city, whose bill on the semi-monthly day was adopted by the legislature last year, will this session introduce a bill aiming to divert the gross earnings tax, for as at present constituted, it is not the community like Brainerd, but the state of Minnesota that is benefited by the gross earnings tax. The Minneapolis Tribune publishes this regarding the senator's bill:

"Investigation has shown that Minnesota is behind other leading states in the matter of the distribution of the gross earnings tax on all roads," Senator George H. Gardner of Brainerd said here yesterday.

Senator Gardner is now completing his bill to be presented to the next legislature to provide for the distribution to the community where there are railroad properties of the gross earnings tax which now goes to the state. The bill will provide for the apportionment according to the valuation of the property in each locality. In all of the large eastern states, he says, the different municipalities get the benefit of the gross earnings tax.

OUR GRIP COLUMN

The real old fashioned gripe is prevalent in this neighborhood at present and many of our citizens are aid up or "just hanging around" from the effects of it. But "that aint the worst of it." Not a drop of the old fashioned and popular remedy is to be got this side of Duluth. Some suffering going on.—Editorial of Editor Charles G. Osterlund in the Deerwood Times.

Postmaster Carl Bergstrom is having a wrestling match with that well known soft mat artist, L. A. Grippe. At this writing, Carl has an excellent chance to win out.—Cuyuna Range Miner.

LeRoy Farrer has been very ill this week suffering with a severe attack of the grip.—Cuyuna Range Miner.

Mrs. Oscar Carlson, Mrs. Mary Peterson, Mrs. Gust Backlund, Ed Peterson and Capt. Sylow's family are sick with the grip in Cuyuna.

It is estimated that there are at least 300 cases of lagrippe on the range. Good advice is to "Cover up each cough and sneeze. If you don't you'll spread disease." So far two deaths, both from pneumonia, have been reported.—Crosby Courier.

NORTHERN EDITORS AT SAUK CENTER

Sauk Center, Minn., Jan. 8.—At the annual business meeting of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association, to be held at Sauk Center January 21 and 22, up-state editors, printers and publishers will visit the State Home School for Girls; will be banqueted by the citizens of Sauk Center, and will listen to papers of interest to the craft.

The Northern association has led in the movement to promote the more general use of cost systems and better business methods in the printing and publishing business, and the strongest advocate has been J. C. Morrison of the Morris Tribune, president of the State Editorial association and conductor of the newspaper department of the Inland Printer, who will read a paper, "Printshop Problems and the Cost Cure."

Among others who will read papers are Victor E. Lawson, editor of the Wilmar Tribune; L. A. Rossman, of the Grand Rapids Herald-Review, and F. A. Dare, of the Walker Pilot.

A large attendance is expected by the officers as indicated from the correspondence received by Secretary Rutledge regarding the papers and discussions. The program is one of the best that has been offered by the association.

FREE GOLD FISH

Aquarium Given Away with Purchase of Nyal's Preparations at Lammon's Pharmacy

Advertising in the Brainerd Daily Dispatch and featuring free gold fish, an aquarium with every purchase of Nyal's preparations amounting to 25 cents or over, Lammon's Pharmacy, "the store with a conscience" was crowded to the doors Friday and Saturday and the entire stock of golden, shiny fish was quickly absorbed as a premium and visitors purchased of the Nyal preparations.

"We did a splendid business," said Mr. Lammon, "and we give full credit to the Dispatch, for we used that paper for our advertising campaign." This morning in over 200 homes in the city, gold fish are splashing around in their tanks and the little ones are watching their antics.

RANGE MINING

Barrows Mining Co. Continuing to Sink Their Shaft—Brainerd-Cuyuna is Pumping

The Barrows Mining Co. are continuing to sink their shaft at the Rowley mine in section 16 south of Barrows. The electric pump is being operated. At the Brainerd-Cuyuna mine in the city limits of Brainerd both electric pumps of each 1,600 gallons capacity are in operation.

Engaged in stockpiling are the Kennedy mine of the Rogers Brown Ore Co. at Cuyuna, the Armour at Crosby, the Wilcox at Woodrow, the Iron Mountain near Manganese.

Ore is expected to increase in price 75 cents or more a ton the season of 1916. It will permit the working of underground mines at a profit and thus create a busy season on the Cuyuna.

The School Report.

In reading I am "good," it says. In spelling "excellent," it says. And always in geography I get a high per cent.

I'm "good" too, in arithmetic, in music and the rest. And father says he's glad to know in school I do my best.

But then he shakes his head and says He wonders how 't would be if teacher asked him to make out A "home report" for me.

There's "rising early," "bed on time," And "minding promptly," too, And "table ways" and "cheerfulness," And "little things to do."

In some perhaps I might get "good," In others, I am sure, My marks would not be more than "fair," And some would be just "poor." —Youth's Companion.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Best

"The Song of Hate" produced by J. Gordon Edwards. Floria La Tosca (Betty Nansen), is a celebrated opera singer. Two men are rivals for her love. The favored one, Mario de Campo a young artist, incurs by his success the savage hatred of Baron Scarpia, prefect of police. Inspired by his hatred, Scarpia causes the arrest of Mario on a trumped-up charge and as the price for his freedom, demands that La Tosca give herself to him. The singer's love is all powerful and she consents to the debasing proposal. Scarpia comes to claim his promise. Tosca is desperate. At the last moment, revolting from the horrible bargains she has made, she seizes a knife and stabs her false sutor to the heart. Tosca's realization of what she has done and the consequences which ensue lead "The Song of Hate" to a terrific climax, in which Miss Nansen's superb art and wonderful command of dramatic emotion rise to heights never before attained.

One day Lois sees Spurrier, whom she has learned to love, coming out of a church with his bride. In her agony of grief, she is about to commit suicide, but is prevented by a crook who loves her. She returns to her old life, and is again robbing Spurrier's house when she is mortally wounded by a revolver shot, and dies in the arms of the man she loves.

Edna Mayo has in her support Bryant Washburn, Anna Walthall, Mary McAllister and William H. Burns. The story was written and directed by J. Charles Haydon.

Forbes-Robertson's Leave-Taking

Playgoers of this city are to see Forbes-Robertson, foremost actor of the time, for the last time at the Brainerd opera house, Wednesday, January 12, in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." Forbes-Robertson is retiring from the stage after a period of forty years' service to the drama, an abundant and illustrious career. The histrionic talents, the traits and the qualities of imagination and artistry of Forbes-Robertson have enriched and adorned the theatre and stand out in bold relief in this age when great acting is rare.

Forbes-Robertson was born in London on January 16, 1853. He made his stage debut when he was 21, after having devoted three years to the study of painting, the art he had hoped to make his life work. He has never abandoned his painting, though the stage has claimed the greater part of his time and labor and love. His home contains many canvases which speak of the success that might have been his had he not become an actor.

The career of Forbes-Robertson is the history of the English stage for the past thirty years. He has been identified with the chief actors of his time. His own productions are outstanding features of the theatre of this age. As a classical actor he has no rival. And the classical—inasmuch as this represents the natural, solid and true school of acting whether in old or modern drama—is reflected in all his work.

With the leave taking of Forbes-Robertson the public loses one of the

The Prices Talk

In Our "Personally Conducted" Sale

It is custom when a sale is made to stir up enthusiasm by plastering the store with big cards and darkening it by covering the windows with large signs.

We have relied upon low prices to attract the crowds—and it has done it most satisfactorily. One more week and the sale closes. Coats, dresses, skirts, furs, dress goods, outings, gloves, hosiery—everything in the store but Victrolas, Victor Records and Ladies Home Journal patterns will be on sale.

Chiropractic Announcement

I hereby wish to inform the public, that I will open an office for the practice of Chiropractic and other Naturapathic remedies, on or about Jan. 10th.

It is scarcely necessary to go into a detailed discussion or explanation of this New Science in the Art of Healing. The past ten years of achievement in the relief of suffering humanity through the agency of Chiropractic speak for its merits. Twenty-five million know what it is, and ten million in this country resort to it when ill.

There may, however, be some in this community who do not know the scientific basis on which this method of treatment is founded.

The accompanying cut illustrates a side view of the spinal column. Kindly note the small openings which are along either side. These are the canals through which the nerves pass from the spinal cord to all parts of the body. These canals are formed by a union of notches on the upper surface of one bone of the spine and the lower surface of the bone above.

Many factors may operate to cause a slight shifting of these bones upon each other. In my next announcement I will explain the production and results of such displacements.

For consultation call at the office, where I will gladly give further information FREE. Phone N. W. 102

WAR ELEMENT IS STRONG IN G. O. P.

If Roosevelt Is Nominated It Will Be Because He Fights.

WATCHING DEBATES IN HOUSE

Wilson Supporters, on the Other Hand, Say He Kept Us Out of the War and For This Reason Should Be Re-elected—Even Critics of His Mexican Policy Feel Relieved That Peace Reigns.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 8. [Special.]—There is no doubt now that if Theodore Roosevelt is nominated by the Republicans it will be because the war element in the Republican party predominates.

After talking with rampant war advocates, meaning those who say war is a good thing and that the United States should be armed equal to any other nation, I am convinced that they will give reluctant support to Roosevelt, but will be enthusiastically for him when they once go over.

Just how strong the war element in the Republican party is at present no one can say. It may develop during the debates on preparedness and in discussions in the papers, but at all events, one of the assets of Roosevelt among Republicans who bitterly opposed him four years ago is that he is a war man.

Should We Dip In?

There is a question whether the United States should dip into the great war. One of the reasons for the popularity of President Wilson is the belief that he has kept us out of war. In spite of the criticisms of the Mexican policy, there is quite a feeling of relief that United States troops are not dying in that country, especially as under all the pronouncements of the Taft and present administrations any intervention would mean that we would come away and leave Mexico intact, that we would not take any territory as indemnity. The boast of the Wilson boosters is that he has kept us out of war in Europe. If that kind of popularity amounts to anything will the boosting of Roosevelt as a war man help him to the Republican nomination?

"Made In America."

Congressman Garland of Pennsylvania, serving his first term, has introduced a bill which will appeal to quite a number of people. It provides that every article manufactured in this country shall bear the imprint "Made in America (United States)." This would be all right if it were entirely practicable. It would be all right for standard and staple articles, but to force an imprint on every little thing made in this country would mean a great hardship, particularly in regard to small articles. It would mean remodeling nearly all machinery. Of course, like many excellent bills, Garland has a good object in view, but sometimes best intentions work trouble for many people.

Norwegians in the Senate.

For years Minnesota has had a man of Norwegian birth in the senate. For a long time North Dakota has been represented in the senate by a man of Norwegian parentage. It is just possible that Governor Eberhart will be elected in Minnesota, which will give the state two men of that origin. And it is among the possibilities that North Dakota may add another of the same origin to the senate.

Nothing to Do With the War.

The effort which Congressman Johnson of Washington is making to abolish the Fahrenheit thermometer has nothing to do with the war. It is not because a German name is involved. Johnson makes a good argument in favor of the centigrade measurement of temperature, and he may get a bill through making it official.

Put George on the Job.

In these days of trouble quite a number of congressmen seem to think it would be a good idea to recall the words of wisdom uttered by George Washington, principally when he warned against "foreign entanglements." There is a wide gulf between the time when Washington spoke and the present, and during that time we have gone far afield in foreign entanglements, making many treaties which have greatly hampered this country and placed a foreign restraint upon our actions. At present the temptation seems greater than ever to enter into world affairs.

Do the People Read?

It may well be asked whether or not the people read all that is sent them by their congressmen and the various departments at Washington. At present there are thousands of clerks busy sending documents, pamphlets, books, seeds and circulars furnished by the government to people all over the country. In all the complaints about the postoffice not being self-sustaining little account is taken of the vast amount of mail carried free.

Patrons of Postal Savings.

The patrons of postal savings banks are in the cities. They are largely foreign born people, who have faith in the government rather than in the other banks. In a recent statement it was shown that in centers where there was the largest foreign population there were the greatest number of deposits.

SAYS ALL COWS LOOK ALIKE AT NIGHT.

Miles City Mont., Jan. 8.—That all cows look alike at night and that in the darkness he could not tell whether he was slaughtering one of his own or one of his neighbor's, was the plea advanced by M. E. Bailey, a dairyman living near this city, as his reason for the alleged butchering of a cow belonging to a neighbor, Richard Eacock. Bailey was held to district court in the sum of $750, which was furnished. The charge is grand larceny.

TO DIVORCE GRAHAME-WHITE

Wife of Aviator Files a Petition in London.

London, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Claude Grahame-White, wife of the aviator, who is now a flight commander of the royal naval air service, has filed a petition for the restitution of her conjugal rights, an action which ordinarily is the prelude to a suit for divorce.

Claude Grahame-White and Dorothy Cadwell Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Loy Taylor of New York, were married in Wilford, Eng., in 1912.

BURGLARS ELUDE POLICE DRAGNET

St. Paul Customs House Is Robbed of $600,000.

MAIN BOOTY IS IN STAMPS

Thieves Drill and Blow Vault, Securing Over Three Thousand Dollars in Cash and an Immense Amount in Negotiable Revenue Stickers.

St. Paul, Jan. 8.—St. Paul and Minneapolis police spread wide a net in which, however, they failed to catch the men who looted the St. Paul federal customs house Thursday night of negotiable revenue stamps the value of which, on a revised estimate, is believed to be about $600,000. The original belief was that the rogues got away with stamps worth $1,000,000.

With all trains watched in the Twin Cities and federal authorities vigilant in all the larger communities the thieves nevertheless succeeded in betraying no trace of themselves.

Deputies in the internal revenue office checked over their books with the bundles of stamps left by the thieves. Their totals, which have not yet been proved up with a second check, showed the total amount of stamps taken to aggregate in value $576,077.51.

In addition to this the burglars obtained cash estimated at between $3,000 and $4,000. The money was taken from a small safe inside the vault from which the revenue stamps were obtained. This was all the cash in the offices with the exception of $30 in currency which had been slipped into an envelope.

Some Stamps Tossed Aside.

Of about $700,000 worth of non-negotiable revenue stamps which the vault contained the robbers took only 127,000 10-cent stamps for pint bottles of champagne. The champagne stamps were thought to be negotiable issues, in the opinion of S. I. Trussell, chief deputy, who said that they might easily have been mistaken for stamps for bonds and deeds. Stamps for bottles and cases of beer, wines and other liquors and for cigarettes and playing cards were tossed aside or left in their pigeonholes, but no stamps that might be negotiable were left.

The burglars planned their visit most fortunately for themselves, because the vault was packed to capacity, having many thousands of dollars in stamps more than ordinarily.

If they had made it two days earlier their haul would have been considerably reduced. On Wednesday a consignment of $210,000 worth of negotiable stamps was received. The entire consignment, with the exception of a few thousand for which space could not be found and which were sent to the Minneapolis internal revenue office, was included in the haul.

The theory that an automobile was used is accepted as probable by the police, but they explain that the stamps might easily have been carried out without the use of a conveyance.

BRITAIN SHORT OF COTTON

This Information Causes a Jump of Several Points.

New York, Jan. 8.—Reports from Calcutta that the British government has fixed a cotton freight rate of $2 a hundred pounds, coupled with the information that Great Britain is facing a serious cotton shortage, caused an advance of several points on the local exchange.

The reports in regard to the freight rate were afterward denied from Calcutta, where it was stated that the rate was firm at $3.

The denial, however, did not shake the confidence of cotton brokers that the British government was planning some steps to increase the importation of cotton.

BRITISH TRADE IS GROWING

Board of Trade Figures for December Disclose Increase.

London, Jan. 8.—The board of trade figures for December show an increase of £2,621,000 in imports and £7,668,000 in exports.

The principal increases in imports were in grain, flour and metals. Dutiable imports of food, drink and tobacco decreased by £4,000,000. The increase in exports was principally in cotton, iron and manufactured steel.

For the year 1915 imports increased £157,121,000. Exports decreased £16,076,000.

CAR STRIKERS ARE SUED FOR $200,000

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 8.—After weeks of wrangling over wages and working conditions with its 300 motormen and conductors, during which local transportation has been paralyzed and riots have become common, the Wilkesbarre Railway company has sued the strikers individually and collectively for $200,000 damages for "violation of their contract and unlawful picketing."

The strike is affecting a retail buying population of 48,815, a wholesale buying population of 84,639 and a total population of 1,739,000. The 330 men are losing $5,000 a week in wages and the company $2,900 a day in fares. Seventy thousand United Mine Workers and 30,000 textile workers have boycotted the street cars. Three hundred special mounted police and two troops of state police have been unable to preserve order. All cars are protected with double steel netting.

The men contend they are striking for justice. Company officials claim they are fighting for the principle of arbitration.

Domestic Bliss.

Mrs. Nocknoodle—Oh, Norris, if you would always be as good and gentle and kind as you are at this moment how happy we might be! Mr. Nocknoodle (closing his temper instantly and bellowing at the top of his voice)—Do you mean to say, madam, that I am not always as good and kind as I am at this moment?

Student Pays Death Penalty.

Ossining, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Antonio Ponton, a Porto Rican student, was put to death in the electric chair for the murder of Miss Bessie Kromer, a Schenectady (N. Y.) school teacher, with whom he was infatuated. Three shocks were administered before Ponton was pronounced dead.

New York Banks and Chicago Trust Company Aid Republic.

Panama, Jan. 8.—The Panama government has obtained a loan of $1,250,000 from a trust company in Chicago and three New York banks at 96.

The loan is to draw 5 per cent interest and is for twelve years. This loan will relieve the temporary financial difficulties of the national treasury.

FIFTY THOUSAND CHINESE REVOLT.

Peking, Jan. 8.—Practically the entire province of Yunnan is now in revolt. It is officially admitted.

Communication with Yunnan has been entirely interrupted for two days. The rebels are reported to number nearly 50,000. Government troops marching into Yunnan are expected to come in contact with the rebel forces within forty-eight hours.

Official Precedence in France.

The wives of outgoing French ministers suffer a loss of dignity through their husbands' departure from office, for they must conform to the rules of precedence carefully defined by the protocol. It is expected that the wives of senators and deputies must rise if the wife of a cabinet minister enters a room where they are seated, and they must remain standing until addressed by the minister's wife. Ministers' wives show similar deference to the premier's wife, who in her turn must rise to salute the wife of the president of the chamber or of the president of the senate. The last named ranks in the official hierarchy next to the hostess of the Elysee.—London Chronicle.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, sealding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the sensation is sometimes with a sealding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

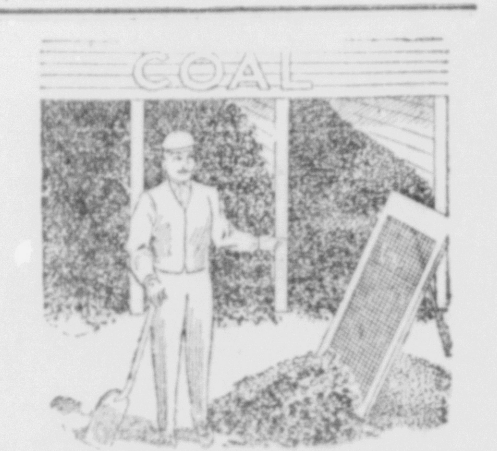

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.
